Timber Ridge hires new food and beverage director

Marcus Kollmai

Marcus Kollmai has been named the food and beverage director at Timber Ridge at Talus, Issaquah, WA.

Kollmai's experience includes studying at a hospitality school in Austria, owning and managing a banquet facility and running dining services at other senior communities across the country.

In this new role, he will work to elevate the dining experience for residents by cooking the food fresh to order, including carving stations and buffets, providing vegan and healthy meal options, as well as training the dining staff to have top service etiquette.
