

Washington Life Plan Community Hires Director of Plant Operations

Timber Ridge, a life plan community in Issaquah, Washington, has named Jacob Harder as director of plant operations.

Harder will now direct and supervise the activity of Timber Ridge's maintenance department and consult with residents for any home remodeling projects, according to the company. Prior to joining Timber Ridge, Harder served as maintenance supervisor at Greystar in Seattle, where he managed three communities and maintenance teams on several remodeling and capital projects.
